

Bespoke Boat Trips

Make your stay in Pembrokeshire memorable with one of our Bespoke Boat Trips. These trips are unlike any other boat trip available in Pembrokeshire, as each one is tailored to your specific interests. The following trips are our favourites, but let us know if you have other ideas!

Supper at Sea (from 1.5 hours)

Dine like never before! Take along your loved ones and enjoy a delicious picnic hamper bursting with fresh local produce, whilst you take in magnificent views across the seas and Ramsey Island.

Artists Trips (approx 2 hours)

Bring along your sketchpad and pencils for a dedicated artists trip out to sea where you can draw inspiration from the local wildlife and the dramatic coastal scenery visible across the St Davids peninsula. This workshop trip includes tuition from one of a number of local professional artists. Artists include Claire Wimperis, Sarah Brown, Tony Kitchell and Deb Withey.

Photography Trips (approx 2 hours)

Take your wildlife photography to a whole new level with one of our exclusive photography boat trips. Join our professional photographer on a cruise and snap local seabirds, grey seals and take stunning pictures of seascapes. Experience the challenges of photographing harbour porpoises from a moving boat and changing light conditions. Photographers include Janet Baxter.

Creative Writing Trips (approx 2 hours)

If you're in need of inspiration, the scenic views from these shores are sure to ignite some creativity! Immerse yourself in local heritage and mythology which has been known to be the base of many local stories. Don't forget your notepad and pen, you'll want to jot down all the tips and advice from your workshop with a professional author. Authors include Jackie Morris and Nicola Davies.

Story Telling Trips (approx 2 hours)

Enjoy a relaxing trip to sea with best-selling author and illustrator Jackie Morris. As you travel around the island watching the seabirds fly, listen to extracts and samples from some of Jackie's stories such as "The Seal Children" and "Queen of the Sky".

Special Occasion Trips

Perhaps you're hoping to celebrate a special birthday, anniversary, engagement or maybe even a proposal? A Special Occasion boat trip is most certainly the perfect choice for an unforgettable celebration.

Prices start at approx. £65pp but due to the bespoke nature of these trips, prices can vary significantly.

Please contact a member of our Concierge Team on 01437 772 758 if you are interested in booking one of these trips.
